BACKGROUND

The Office of the People's Counsel (OPC) has a requirement for a firm to provide professional legal matters pertaining to general personnel issue. The Office of the People's Counsel "OPC" is an independent agency of the District of Columbia government. By law, it is the advocate for consumers of natural gas, electric, and telephone services in the District. District of Columbia law designates the Office as a party to all utility-related proceedings before the Public service Commission. The Office also represents the interests of District ratepayers before federal regulatory agencies. The Office is authorized to investigate the operation and valuation of utility companies independently of any pending proceeding.

SCOPE OF WORK

The Office of the people's Counsel (OPC) requests the services of a firm to represent OPC with a variety of general legal matters pertaining to personnel issues. The selected firm will provide legal assistance to OPC on personnel and general legal matters as requested, with terms of the legal services for each such matter, including the scope of services to be provided, to be determined at the time OPC requests assistance.

TERM

The term of this contract shall be from the date of award until September 30, 2012.
