

Join us for an exciting workshop
to become tomorrow's leaders!

ATTENTION HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS!

- * Are you passionate about advocacy and environmental justice?
- * Do you want to make a difference in your community?

The Office of the People's Counsel Presents: A Workshop on Advocacy/Environmental Justice.

When:

October 23 & 24, 2024
9:00 AM - 3:30 PM

Where:

OPC Office, Capitol Hill Conference Room
655 15th Street, NW, Washington, DC

Workshop Highlights:

- ◆ Environmental justice
- ◆ Community organizing
- ◆ Public awareness
- ◆ Legislative drafting
- ◆ Understanding utilities
- ◆ Speakers from the DC advocacy community
- ◆ Connect with youth activists from all eight Wards
- ◆ Enhance your college applications

Lunch will be provided. For more information and to register, scan the QR code.

The Office of the People's Counsel for the District of Columbia (OPC) is an independent DC government agency serving as the legal advocate for all gas, electric, water, and telecommunications ratepayers in the District.